Numb. 15079. [1071]

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 10, to Tuesday November 13, 1798.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Thankſgiving.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our moſt ſerious Conſideration the indiſpenſable Duty which We owe to Almighty God for the recent and ſignal Interpoſition of His good Providence, in Addition to the manifold and ineſtimable Benefits which theſe Kingdoms had already received at His Hands, manifeſted by the Bleſſing beſtowed on Our Arms in the late memorable Battle, fought in diſtant Seas, as well as by the Deliverance of Our Dominions from Invaſion and from inteſtine Commotions, through the Energy and Valour of Our Naval and Military Forces, and the Loyalty and Courage of Our faithful Subjects, which, exerted in a righteous Cauſe, it has pleaſed the Divine Goodneſs to crown with Succeſs, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to iſſue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding that a General Thankſgiving to Almighty God, for theſe His Mercies, be obſerved throughout England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Thurſday the Twenty-ninth Day of November next: And for the better and more orderly ſolemnizing the ſame, We have given Directions to the Moſt Reverend the Archbiſhops, and Right Reverend the Biſhops of England, to compoſe a Form of Prayer ſuitable to the Occaſion, to be uſed in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worſhip, and to take Care for the timely diſperſing of the ſame throughout their reſpective Dioceſes; and We do ſtrictly charge and command, that the ſaid Publick Day of Thankſgiving be religiouſly obſerved by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of ſuffering ſuch Puniſhment as we may juſtly inflict upon all ſuch who ſhall contemn or neglect the ſame.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fourth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, in the Thirty-eighth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

Naples, September 25, 1798.

His Majesty's Ships the Culloden, Captain Trowbridge, the Alexander, Captain Ball, and the Frigate Bonne Citoyenne, came into this Port on the 18th Instant in the Evening. His Sicilian Majesty went out in his Boat into the Bay to meet them, as did numerous English and Neapolitan Boats. The Ships gave the Royal Salute to His Majesty.—Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, in the Vanguard, accompanied by the Thalia Frigate, did not make his Appearance in this Bay until Saturday last the 22d Instant, having been becalmed off Sicily.

The King of Naples not only went off to meet the Admiral, but instantly went on board the Vanguard, and staid on board until that Vessel was at Anchor in the Port. The Royal Salute was given by all the King's Ships, both on His Sicilian Majesty's Arrival on board the Vanguard, and on his leaving the Ship. The Day being remarkably fine, numerous Boats with Colours and Music attended the Vanguard, and all the Shores and Wharfs of Naples were crowded with a Multitude of rejoicing People; and when the Admiral came on Shore, the Reception the Neapolitans gave him was expressive of the utmost Kindness and Gratitude.

Naples, September 28, 1798.

Every Assistance has been given to the Vanguard, the Culloden, and Alexander, so that these Ships will be fit to go again to Sea in a few Days. Yesterday His Majesty's Ship Colossus, Captain Murray, with Four Victuallers, from Gibraltar, came to an Anchor in this Port.

This Morning Sir Horatio Nelson has received a Letter from Sir James Saumarez, dated from the Port of Augusta in Sicily, the 17th Instant, reporting all well in the Squadron under his Command, and that he hoped, having got Water and fresh Provisions, to sail from thence for Gibraltar the Wednesday following.

September 29, 1798.

Captain Gage, in the Terpsichore, arrived here this Morning. He left Malta the 26th Instant, when Sir James Saumarez with his Squadron, in Conjunction with the Portuguese Squadron under the Command of Marquis Nizza, had summoned the French to surrender and evacuate Malta, which was refused by M. Vaubois, the Commander in Chief of the Valetta; and that Sir James Saumarez was proceeding with his Squadron and French Prizes to Gibraltar, having left the Portuguese to block Malta, and having, at the Request of the Maltese Insurgents, supplied them with a large Quantity of Ammunition, and Twelve Hundred Stand of Arms from his French Prizes. The Maltese say, that the French are in the greatest Want at Valetta.

Vienna, October 27, 1798.

Intelligence was received on Thursday Afternoon, from General Bellegarde, of the Austrians having, at the formal Request of the Grisons' Government, taken Possession of Coire and the important Post of Richenau, and of Detachments being on their March to occupy the Rest of the Country.

St. James's, November 7, 1798.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns of Portsmouth, Portsea, and Neighbourhood, embrace the earliest Opportunity, humbly to address your Majesty with the most sincere Congratulations, that it has pleased the Almighty so eminently to bless and distinguish the Arms of these Realms in the late glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson.

It is with inexpressible Joy and Exultation that we, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, reflect on the Importance of this Victory, which will, in its Effects, while it adds additional Lustre to your Majesty's Arms, be an irreparable Blow to the Naval Power of France, and completely defeat her ambitious Views, which were to destroy the Commerce and Independence of these Kingdoms.

Permit us, Most Gracious Sovereign, to avail ourselves of this Occasion, to assure you that we, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of these Towns and Neighbourhood, feel animated by the moſt zealous Ardour and warmeſt Senſe of Duty and Affection to your Majeſty and our Country, and that we will cheerfully contribute and exert our utmoſt Efforts to protect your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Auguſt Family, and defend our preſent happy Conſtitution.

That a continued Series of Victory may accompany your Fleets and Armies, and Succeſs attend your Councils, (as it has hitherto done,) ſo that our inſolent, ſanguinary, and imperious Foe be humbled, and the Bleſſings of Peace ſpeedily reſtored to your Majeſty's Dominions, is the ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed by 2500 Inhabitants.

[Preſented by Daniel Garrett, Eſq; and the following Deputation, Elias Arnaud, George Poore, Harry Gibbs, Andrew Lindegreen, Moſes Greetham, William Grant, William Deacon, John Hickley, and William Garrett, Eſquires, accompanied by William Chute, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Southampton.]

St. James's, November 13, 1798.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Grace preſented to the King; which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive verv graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Alderman, and Chief Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newport, in the Iſle of Wight, in Common-Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's ever loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeſſes of your antient Borough of Newport, in the Iſle of Wight, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, offering up our warmeſt Congratulations on the very deciſive and glorious Victory lately obtained by your Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelſon, off the Nile, over a ſuperior Fleet of an ambitious, cruel, and implacable Enemy, to whoſe entire Defeat the ſurrounding Countries teſtified their cordial Joy, by their exultant Acclamations.

The great, ſplendid, and repeated Victories obtained by your Majeſty's Fleets, under the Almighty Protection, during this War, ſo manifeſtly evince the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels, ably and heriocally carried into Execution, by the gallant and uncommon Efforts of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, that we rely with implicit Confidence, they will tend to procure to theſe Kingdoms an honorable Peace, and ſhew to the European World, that the Energy of the Britiſh Nation has conſpicuouſly contributed to reſtore to them the returning Bleſſings of good Order and regular Government.

Given under our Common Seal, the Thirtieth of October One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Ninety-eight.

[Tranſmitted by Henry Worſley, Eſq; Mayor of Newport.]

Whitehall, November 12, 1798

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that about Half paſt Six o'Clock in the Evening of Tueſday the 6th Inſtant, George Edmund Shuttleworth, Son of John Shuttleworth, of Sun-Tavern Fields, in the County of Middleſex, Eſq; was forcibly ſeized by Two or more Men in Back-Lane, near the Turnpike-Gate, in the Pariſh of St. George in the Eaſt, who, after having blindfolded and gagged him, dragged him to a Place called Botany-Bay, near the New Road, where with the moſt horrid Imprecations they forced him into a Hackney-Coach, threatening to blow out his Brains if he made the leaſt Noiſe or Reſiſtance; that One of the Men got into the Coach with him the ſaid George Edmund Shuttleworth, and that the other, as he imagines, rode upon the Box with the Coachman: that after having gone on a conſiderable Time, the Coach ſtopt, as it is ſuppoſed, in or near Chick-Lane, now called Weſt-Street, Weſt Smithfield, from whence the ſaid George Edmund Shuttleworth was conducted through ſome Alleys or Paſſages, and put into a private Room, ſet upon a Chair, and informed, that if he ſtirred, made the leaſt Noiſe, or attempted to take the Bandage from his Eyes, or the Gag from his Mouth, he would be done for: that after keeping him in this Situation for Forty-eight Hours without any Suſtenance, except a ſmall Piece of Bread, and taking from him all his Money, (except Three Shillings,) they conveyed him through ſeveral Windings into Weſt-Smithfield aforeſaid, where they diſengaged him the ſaid George Edmund Shuttleworth, ſaying "he might go and be damned, for he was "not the Perſon they wanted:"

His Majeſty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the atrocious Felony abovementioned, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any One of them who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein; ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. PORTLAND.
